ASSURANCE STATEMENTS

1) Professionally acceptable standards governing the care, treatment, and use of animals, including appropriate use of anesthetic, analgesic, and tranquilizing drugs, prior to, during, and following actual research, teaching, testing, surgery, or experimentation were followed by this research facility.

2) Each principal investigator has considered alternatives to painful procedures.

3) This facility is adhering to the standards and regulations under the Act, and it has required that exceptions to the standards and regulations be specified and explained by the principal investigator and approved by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC). A summary of all the exceptions is attached to this annual report. In addition to identifying the IACUC-approved exceptions, this summary includes a brief explanation of the exceptions, as well as the species and number of animals affected.

4) The attending veterinarian for this research facility has appropriate authority to ensure the provision of adequate veterinary care and to oversee the adequacy of other aspects of animal care and use.

Column E Explanation

This form is intended as an aid to completing the Column E explanation. It is not an official form and its use is voluntary. Names, addresses, protocols, veterinary care programs, and the like, are not required as part of an explanation. A Column E explanation must be written so as to be understood by lay persons as well as scientists.

1. Registration Number: 51-F-0026

2. Number 153 of animals used in this study.

3. Species (common name) channel Catfish of animals used in the study.

4. Explain the procedure producing pain and/or distress.

The fish undergo a mild dermal abrasion to remove surface mucous + superficial epithelium. This is done under general anesthesia using MS-222. The fish are then placed in a tank that contains the fungus Saprolegnia. The fish then become infected with this fungus. Infected fish are then exposed to various concentrations of a drug that has proven effective in other fish

5. Provide scientific justification why pain and/or distress could not be relieved. State methods or means used to determine that pain and/or distress relief would interfere with test results. (For Federally mandated testing, see Item 6 below)

This work is being conducted to support approval of this test compound for use in channel catfish to treat fungal infections. FDA regulations require proof of efficacy in diseased animals. Drug to alleviate the pain of infection may interfere with an assessment of this agents ability to kill the fungus.

6. What, if any, federal regulations require this procedure? Cite the agency, the code of Federal Regulations (CFR) title number and the specific section number (e.g., APHIS, 9 CFR 113.102):
